FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

First Armenian Presbyterian Church Hosts Nightly Prayer & Fasting Service to Kick-Off Fresno's 21 Days of Prayer & Fasting

Fresno, CA – January 5, 2024 - First Armenian Presbyterian Church is pleased to announce the commencement of Fresno's 21 Days of Prayer & Fasting with a Prayer & Fasting Service on Monday, January 8th at 7:00 p.m. This event will be hosted at the First Armenian Presbyterian Church located at 430 S 1st Street, Fresno, CA 93702. All are welcome.

The service will also be available online for those unable to attend in person at <https://www.youtube.com/@FAPCFresno/streams>.

This unique initiative is sponsored by the Fresno-Clovis Pastor Clusters. Each night during the 21 days, a different church will host and provide an opportunity for the community to experience the depth and diversity of congregations across Fresno and Clovis. The underlying theme of the initiative is Unity, recognizing that despite differences, we are One Church in Jesus Christ.

The nightly services, both in-person and online, will feature a blend of prayer and worship, creating a powerful atmosphere for collective spiritual growth. This event serves as an excellent opportunity for the local community to come together in unity, lifting their voices in prayer for the region. Past events have attracted hundreds of attendees each night from 90+ local churches. Early arrival is encouraged.

"We invite everyone to join together for one, two, or all 21 nights as we come together in prayer for our community and believe in the transformative power of collective faith throughout 2024 and beyond," said Pastor Greg Haroutunian at First Armenian Presbyterian Church. "These services will not only be uplifting but also provide a platform for continued mutual encouragement and support."
